October 17th, 1754.

[NUMB. 1061.]

BOSTON, September 16.

ON Monday arrived here the province sloop, Capt. Saunders, with His Excellency and a number of gentlemen who attended him, on board, from Falmouth in Calico-Bay. His excellency's reception, was equal to the high esteem we have for him.

We hear, that a road of communication is order'd, by His excellency, to be made between Cusheoc and Tecomet, for the transportation of stores, and marching soldiers, and will be finished in a few days: And that General Winslow hath received a message from the Narraganset, by two delegates, assuring him of their satisfaction at the building the fort at Tecomet, and that they shall shortly send a number of their chiefs there to declare the same to him in form.

We have advice, by an express from the westward since our last, that the Dutch buildings at and about Hallowell were most of them burnt by the Indians, as also their wheat, of which there were some thousands of bushels, their horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, &c. killed, the latter in some places thrown in heaps: The damage is computed at 50,000l. York currency: one man killed and another captured. That on the 11th day the 11th instant, one man was killed at Penobscot, and one man and two children at Stockbridge the same day. Several scouts are ordered from one place to another, in order to discover the approach of any large number of the enemy. That one of the scouts saw a man that came out of the city of Albany the 20th instant, who informed, that some gentlemen in that city were desirous he would go to the fort Massachusetts, and acquaint, that on the 25th or 26th of August, 42 or 44 canoes of Indians, with 5, 6, and 7 in a canoe, cross'd the lake, with a design to make a descent on our frontiers, which account they had from the French Indians then in that city. That the people in the new plantations were under great apprehensions, and in general withdrawn, except some few that have shut themselves up in poor forts and picquetted houses. A number of men raised in several towns in the county of Hampshire, being on their march for the relief and defence of Stockbridge and other places exposed to the enemy, were met by a large number which soon gather'd from many parts of Connecticut.

Boston, Sept. 23. By the sloop Jolly, from fort Halifax at Tecomet falls, we have an account, that it is expected that the works of that fortress, and fort Western at Cusheoc, will be finished, as also the road of communication between those two forts, and the remainder of the soldiers that were raised for the late expedition upon Kennebeck-River (except such a number as shall be left in garrison for the defence of the forts there) dismissed, together with the workmen employed in building them, in 3 or 4 days from this date: at which time, we hear, major-general Winslow, and the other officers, will return to Boston.

Sept. 30. Friday last return'd from Kennebeck-River, the remainder of our troops employ'd in the late expedition, with general Winslow, and several other officers.

We are told, that the road between fort Western, and fort Halifax, is finished; and that about 130 men are left in garrison at those forts.

the ship Doris of Dorset, of and from Dublin for Cape Fear, John Scott Master, with several Passengers and Servants. On Saturday put in here, the Brig, Samuel, Joshua Young Master, fr. m. Liverpool, for Cape Fear. The same Day arrived here, the Snow Priscilla, Thomas Cattanach Master, from Rotterdam, with upwards of 200 German Passengers. And the same Night, about 9 o'Clock, sail'd over the Bar, on a Cruise, His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, commanded by Capt. Hood. B. a Vessel from Providence, we have Advice, that about 3 Weeks ago they felt a violent Gale of Wind amongst the Bahama Islands, in which several Vessels were driven ashore, and the Wheel of Fortune Sloop, of Nathan, Jonathan Wald Master, entirely lost. We hear, that there were only 16 of the Settlers on Broad River murdered, but that there were 14 carried away Captive; that a young Man (one of the 14) had made his Escape from the Indians, the Day after being taken, while they were rejoicing at having met with another large Body of their Nation; that the young Man avoided a Pursuit by taking a River and swimming near 5 Miles, and saw the Indians come down to the Place where he took the Water; and that he sav'd they were all French Indians.

Mr. Timothy, The Gentlemen who last Must'r-day delivered their Fire Arms to Negroes to carry home (and which they charged and discharged several times as they went along the Streets, to the great Terror of many Ladies) are desired, by a Lady, to read the following Passage in a Pamphlet of Mr. Trenchard's, which their imprudent Behaviour brought to her Mind. I remember, says that Patriot, a French Colony in the West-Indies, who, being at War with the neighbouring Indians, and tired in their March with Externity of Heat, made their Slaves carry their Arms; who, laying hold of the Opportunity, fell upon them and cut them to Pieces. What a ridiculous Imagination was it, to conceive Men will be Servants when they can be Masters; and as Mr. Harrington judiciously observes, whatever People suffers their Servants to carry their Arms, their Servants will soon make them hold their Trenchers.
